great school, speak French, nearby, organic food prepared by a chef every day. Morning session is 8 - 1:30, and I added the high annual fees into each monthly cost. ($150/month added to quoted rates)	Haven't visited. Some flexibility in days/ hours. Used to have the fabulous Barbara Olinger on staff. (currently at the YWCA in SM). Probably a nice choice.	Scheduled to visit 2/8/05. Heard it was fantastic - the gold standard, but super expensive.	Excellent school. Nearby. Healthy snacks. Many parents very happy with it. Some parents said their kid was overwhelmed with the large # of kids and thrived at a smaller place. Affordable per hour, but pricey commitment since it's only fulltime placements.	Seems really neat. They incorporate some Reggio ideas. Kids get to do lots of great creative stuff and have freedom to explore. Annual extra costs not factored in.	Humanistic "free" school. Neat building. Interesting philosophy is probably great for young kids. Lots of conflict resolution practice, freedom, outdoor time. We liked it, but it's in downtown Culver City. A friend is impressed with a 3 yr old of the school and his emotional maturity & peacemaking skills.	Bea Prentiss: director. From NYC: likes art & music. Mollie likes it a lot. Extended hours. You have to be a member $675 - $1175 / yr. Friday is pizza. Close @ 4 pm on Friday. Full time options.	Gisa used to teach school. 1:3 ratio. Licensed for 12, but 6 kids max. Hours: 7:30 - 4. Impressive flyer. Liked her over the phone. Child directed, hands-on philosophy. Licensed as a daycare, but she's calling it a home Preschool. Sounds great.			PROS:
EXPENSIVE! Not a lot of kids in the afternoon. Parking situation not great, but walkable if you live in Venice.	Must volunteer certain # hours per week. It is a co-op.	Pricey, I hear. Where do you park?	hard to get into. Have to pay for full time spot whether we use it or not.	A little pricey, but aren't they all. Convenient to Venice, Mar Vista.	Culver City, Barbara Olinger thinks might be a little too into validating feelings. Kids end up thinking they are the center of the universe? That's just one opinion...		Not convenient to Venice, but perfect if you live in Culver City, Palms, Mar Vista area. I haven't visited it in person yet.			CONS / NOTES:
4.33 weeks/ month. Sept 1 - June 30. Discounts for prepayment. Introductory fee factored into pricing.	5 min grace period.
